

How Resident and Family Councils improve the Quality of Life of Residents in Long-Term Care - Canadian Nurse Series

How resident and family councils improve the quality of life for people living in long-term care facilities (part 1)

- Q&A series begins with examining the purpose of the councils

How resident and family councils improve the quality of life for people living in long-term care facilities (part 2)

- Q&A series considers what facilities did before councils, how to implement councils

How resident and family councils improve the quality of life for people living in long-term care facilities (part 3)

- Q&A series examines how councils help those who are unable to participate in them

How resident and family councils improve the quality of life for people living in long-term care facilities (part 4)

- Q&A series ends with a discussion on the benefits of councils